SALARY AND BENEFITS INFORMATION: Most positions in the Administrative Office (AO) are classified and paid under a broad-banded system which combines General Schedule (GS) grades and pay. Salary is set commensurate with experience. Federal benefits are available for most positions according to federal guidelines.

MISSION STATEMENT: The Administrative Office (AO) is part of the Judicial Branch of the Federal Government and operates as an independent excepted service agency. The AO provides management support and services to the federal courts (except the Supreme Court) in three essential areas: administrative support, program management, and policy development. The AO is responsible for advocating and implementing the policies of the Judicial Conference of the United States and supporting the network of Conference committees. The AO is the focal point for judiciary communication, information, program leadership, and administrative reform. The Office of Management Coordination provides management and policy analysis support to the AO Director and Associate Director for Management and Operations, as well as coordinates and monitors management improvement efforts agency-wide to enhance organizational performance.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: This position is responsible for providing the administrative support needed in the development and implementation of the judiciary's intranet (J-NET) web site. Duties include, but are not limited to:

1. Preparing content information in various web formats;
2. Preparing web designs and web page layouts;
3. Tracking the production and maintenance of web content;
4. Assisting in the management of the web site; and
5. Assisting in the preparation of technical web documentation.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants must have experience as listed below. This requirement is according to the AO Classification, Compensation, and Recruitment Systems (AOCCRS) which includes interpretive guidance and reference to the OPM Operating Manual for Qualification Standards For General Schedule Positions.

Applicants must have one year of specialized experience which is in or directly related to the line of work of this position and which has equipped the applicant with particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to successfully perform the duties of this position.

SELECTIVE FACTOR: Applicants must submit a narrative statement addressing their experience and ability in web design and web layout. Also, please make reference to any Universal Resource Locators (URLs) where such experience has been demonstrated. This selective factor is a screen-out factor. Candidates whose applications do not indicate that they possess the skills and abilities required by this factor will not receive further consideration for this position.
